TURN OUT, COMPANY B.—A meeting of Company B, 1st Regiment West Virginia Boys in Blue, will be held to-night at La Belle Hall. Let levery member be on hand. The pledge will be open for signers.

MERTING OF COMPANY A, BOYS IN BLUE.—The members of Co. A, 1st Regiment W. Va. Boys in Bine, and all others interested, will meet at the Court House, this evening, to make preparations for the grand demonstration and torchlight procession, Thursday night.

BOYSIN BLUE.—Company B, 1st Regiment W. Va. Boys in Blue, was out last night in force. As, on their way to Bridgeport, the company passed our establishment, three rousing cheers were given for the Wheeling INTELLIGENCER, for which we return thanks.

THE bull of the steamer Dubuque, built by Wilson, Dublevy & Co. for the Northern Line Packet Co. of St. Louis, and launched from their boat yard on Saturday morning last, was vocade. Saturday morning last, was, yesterday, with two barges built by the same firm, taken in tow by the steamer Ella, to be taken to Pittsburgh.

MEETING AT BRIDGEPORT.—There was a splendid turn out of Union men at Bridgeport last night, to hear the closing speech of the campaign from Hon. John A. Bingham.

The Boys in Blue from this city marched over and took part in the demonstration. There were also delegations from Bellaire and Martinsville.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.—The Boys in Blue are wide awake and in dead earnest. They still love the old flag, and are resolved it shall not trail in the dust—are determined that its proud waving shall carry a meaning with it. Two hundred Boys in Blue will turn out from Ritchletown and La Belle, Thursday night. Let us see what the other companies can do.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court met yes-terday at 9 A. M., Judge Caldwell pre-aiding.

The principal part of the day was taken up with the case of Joseph Cline, indicted for rape upon the person of Rebecca Burthardt. The trial was not concluded when the court adjourned, and will come up again this morning at 9 o'clock.

SINGER'S LATEST IMPROVED SEWING MACHINE.—We call special attention to the above machine, as the most perfect yet invented. It requires no skill to operate it, has greater range than any other machine, and will not get out of order. If you can't learn to work it in five minutes, we will acknowledge the corn. It makes the lock-stiich, uses the straight needle, and has a self-adjusting tension. Mr. H. Morton, at 161 Main street, is the general agent.

TOROHLIGHT PROCESSION.—The demonstration for Thursday night promises to be a magnificent affair. Every exertion is being made to render it brilliant and imposing. On Saturday evening, the joint committee, appointed by Companies A and B, of the 1st Regt.

W. Va. B. in B., met at La Belle Hall, to appoint Marshals for the procession and to determine the route for the march. C. J. Rawling was elected Chief Marshal, and W. H. Woodward Assistant Chief Marshal. The following is the line of march determined on:

Right resting on Main street, left on John; up. Main to Wheeling Iron Works, countermarch to North street, to Market, to Union, to Fourth, to Quincy, to 8th, to Clay, to 4th, to John, to Mashington Mills, to 6th (Ritchietown) to Denny, to Chapline, to ist, to Main to John, to Market, and the Central Clab Rooms.

We hope to see all the soldiers of the to Denny, to Chapline, to ist, to Main, to John, to Market, and the Cantral Club Rooms.

We hope to see all the soldiers of the City and county in the procession. Let the militia and citizens generally, who are opposed to the "one man power," turn out and swell the ranks. All loyal people along the line of march should dituminate their houses. In about dituminate their houses. In about, all who call themselves Union men and women, should do everything they can do to make this demonstration one worthy of the Union cause.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE.—Some boys, playing in the street, last night, saw the steam arising from the escape pipe of the engine at Pollock's Mill, on the corner of Market and Quincy, and supposing it to indicate a raging conflagration, immediately raised the cry of fire. The excitement spread until it reached the fire bells of the city, which, being of a peculiarly sensitive nature, at one commenced to ring.

The practice of obstructing the streets with building material, is productive of considerable vexation to those who go through the public ways in wagons, buggles and other vehicles, and ought to be remedied. Yesterday afternoon we saw a "look" on Union street, between Main and Market, and we thought then that stone masons, brick masons, and others, were encroaching considerably upon other people's rights.

STRANGEES AND CITIZENS look to your interest. Five dollars saved is five dollars made. This can be done by buying your clothing at H. Hartman, No. 26, Monroe street, one door west of the First National Rank. An immens stock of boys' and mens' clothing and turnishing goods for fall and winter, now open. Please call and look before making your purchases and satisfy yourself.

Annoyed her neighbors.—We have very serious doubts as to the efficacy of the Police Court as a reformatory institution. These have arisen in our mind because we have frequently to chronicle the reappearance at its bar of breakers of the law, who are well acquainted with its terrors. One of these individuals, Mrs. Reddy by name, was arraigned, before Judge Good, yesterday morning. She had been drunk for a wesk or so, and had, in consequence, annoyed her neighbors exceedingly for a wesk or so, and had, in consequence, annoyed her neighbors exceedingly for a wesk or so, and had, in consequence, annoyed her neighbors exceedingly for about that length of time. They, kind souls, had warned her of the impropriety of her conduct, but she was deaf to good advice and listened only to the promptings of king whisky. The result was that officer Tracey arrested her, and Judge Good fined her one dollar and costs.

Topy were taken sick on Saturday last, and such was the violence of their conce. The learned son of Æsculiapius of them dashed all his hopes of professional distinction to the ground.—

"Only that, and nothing more."

A DEMOCRATIO STANDARD BEARRE.—We have been credibly informed that individual, who carried the flag in the procession of "True Boys in Blne" on its march to the Copperhead meet-individual, who carried the flag in the procession of "True Boys in Blne" on its march to the Copperhead meet-individual, and costs.

We have been credibly informed that the individual, who carried the flag in the procession of "True Boys in Bine"
on its march to the Copperhead meeting, at the Centre Wheeling Market House, last week, had at one time been in the rebel army. How do Union soldiers like that?

THE FAIR.—To-day the Fair commences on the Island. The morning will be occupied principally in the reception and arrangement of stock and articles for exhibition. In the after noon there will be an attractive programme, of which racing will form the principal future. See advertisement.
